

A Continuing Series from the Social Action Committee of Temple Sinai

Perspectives on Policing—Past Present and Future

A Day in the Life... of a Black Police Officer and a Black Community Activist

Join us as we welcome our second speakers

Officer Moses Robinson

Anthony Hall

Monday December 13 at 7:00pm

Though they may stand on different sides of a community protest, learn how Moses Robinson, Community Liaison Officer of the Rochester Police Department, and Anthony Hall, Community Activist, work out their differences peacefully and with respect.

The series continues:

January 5 at 7:00pm

Understanding the Role of The Police Accountability Board with Executive Director Conor Dwyer Reynolds who will explain the role of a community led board in bringing accountability and transparency to the Rochester Police Department.

January 24

Re-imagining Policing with Danielle Ponder, Esq., Community Activist and R&B/Soul Artist. Ms. Ponder will look at serious crimes (5%) vs. less serious ones (95%), the size of the police force today and what it might look like to shift some of the current funding into community-based and community-led support services.

All events will be held virtually.
